Kensington, August 16.

THE following Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of York, has been presented to his Majesty by William Thornton, Esq; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Harcourt, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Sheriff and Grand Jury, for the County of York, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Grand Jury for the County of York, take this first Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty on the signal Victory obtained over the Rebels by your Majesty's Forces, under the admirable Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke.

The same inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; the same publick Zeal and Concern for the Religion and Liberties of our Country, which animated us in the Time of Danger to oppose the wicked and desperate Attempts of an abjured Pretender to your Majesty's Throne, inspires us with Joy and Gratitude on this happy Event, whereby we are delivered from the complicated Tyranny of Popery and arbitrary Power.

Be pleased, Great Sir, to accept our humble Thanks for this eminent Instance of your paternal Affection for your People, in appointing his Royal Highness for this important Service: It was plainly the Hand of Providence which preserved him amidst innumerable Dangers, and has restored him safe to your Royal Presence.

May your Majesty live long in the Hearts and Affections of your loyal Subjects; and may this Nation ever be happy in a Prince of your Royal Blood and Virtues to sit upon the British Throne, and to govern a free and grateful People.

Dated at the Castle of York, the Twenty-ninth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty six.

The following Address of the Recorder, Bailiffs, Commonalty and Principal Inhabitants of Southwould, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Grafton: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Recorder, Bailiffs, Commonalty and Principal Inhabitants of Southwould.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's Loyal Corporation of Southwould, beg Leave to tender our Congratulations and Thanks for the late Success of your Majesty's Arms against the Rebels in Scotland, under his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and upon his happy Return in Triumph over Popery, and the Powers of Darkness.

When kind Providence first landed his Royal Highness on the Coast of Southwould, that auspicious Omen dispell'd our Fears, and we gazed on him, as the Hero, the Deliverer of his Country, under God; animated by his Presence, fir'd with a Spark from him, we flew to our Arms, which he has now made useless by his Conquests. And our Cannon, your late gracious Bounty to this Corporation, shall now have only to sound over the Seas your Majesty's Dominion of them, to thunder against France your Victories over her, and proclaim a Peace which she must soon earnestly sue for.

We, Great Sir, are more than sensible of, we are elevated with the Duke of Cumberland's Valour and Conduct; he has cut off the Hydra; he has cleans'd the Augean Stable, and freed us from Wolves and Tygers, maugre the Fierceness of those Mountain Savages, and the Inclemency of a frozen Climate; his Heroic Soul has generously pursued the Cause of God and his Country; Popery, and its associate, Slavery, sculk and retire at his Approach, whilst Liberty and Honour are his constant Attendants, and joyfully lead him on to immortal Glory.

Be pleas'd, most gracious Sovereign, to accept this sincere and grateful Tribute of our Hearts: May Faction expire with Rebellion, that the Blessings of your glorious Reign may be continued henceforth with that Ease and Tranquillity to your Majesty which you are always aiming at for your People. May your Majesty and Royal Progeny preside over the British Realm so long as the British Waves shall wash upon the Coast of Southwould.

Petersbourg, July 19, O. S. On Wednesday last, the 16th Instant, General Bredlach, Minister from Vienna, having received a most gracious Invitation from the Empress to come to Revel, [Price Two-Pence.

Revel, ſet out immediately for that Place; and Baron Holſtein, the Daniſh Ambaſſadour, ſet out on Thurſday the 17th for Copenhagen, by the Way of Finland and Sweden.

Berlin, Aug. 9, N. S. Every Thing is preparing for his Pruſſian Majeſty's Return from Sileſia to this Town upon the 11th Inſtant. The Huſſars here have received Orders to fetch their Horſes from the Country, and to exerciſe every Day, that they may be ready on the 18th Inſtant, when, after the Review is over, they are to attack the Infantry, which will defend itſelf according to the new Exerciſe. The Gendarmes are buying Horſes for the ſame Purpoſe, and the Corps of Hunters is to be aſſembled.

Berlin, Aug. 13, N. S. The King of Pruſſia return'd the 11th Inſtant in the Morning from Sileſia. M. Czernichow intends to ſet out To-morrow for England, being appointed to reſide there as Miniſter from the Empreſs of Ruſſia.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 13. Lieutenant-General Lerche is made Secretary at War, in the room of Lieutenant General Numſen, who is promoted to the Rank of General of the Cavalry in the Army, with proportionable Appointments. The Privy Counſellor Vander Oſten, who was at the Head of the Finances, is removed; yet he is ſtill allowed to keep his Poſt of Comptroller of the Duties in the Sound. M. Thott, one of the Chief Deputies of the Chamber, ſupplies his Place in the Treaſury till farther Orders. The Order is now notified and made publick for a general Mourning, which is to commence the 4th of next Month, and is regulated after the deepeſt and moſt extenſive Manner. All Perſons of the firſt Claſs are to have two Chambers in their Houſes hung with black, as well as their Coaches, Servants and Equipage in the ſame, which is to continue with ſmall Variations for a Year, and the whole to conclude in a Year and ſix Weeks.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 16. The King of Denmark has given to M. Molck a fine Houſe with a pretty Eſtate belonging to it, called Bregentwed, which the late King purchaſed from M. Lewenoren, and M. Vander Luke has received the Key of Chamberlain. M. Clausberg, who had the late King's Privy Purſe, is diſmiſs'd from that Poſt, and has obtained a good Place in the Cuſtoms at Elſenore. Major General Furgott, the Saxon Artilleriſt, who was lately taken into the Daniſh Service upon a very favourable Footing, is diſmiſs'd; as is alſo M. Schomberg Preſident of Altona.

From the Camp at Viler, Aug. 13, N. S. Seven Battalions of the Garriſon of Namur have joined us.

Camp at Viler, Aug. 17, N. S. Advice is juſt brought from Marſhal Bathiani's Quarters, that the Enemy, who have been for three Days paſt in continual Motion, are advancing towards us, which gives us the greateſt Reaſon to expect a general Engagement very ſoon. We have lately had good Succeſs in our Skirmiſhes. Some Days ago two Squadrons of French Horſe, with the Lieutenant Colonel and ſeven Officers, were made Priſoners, and the greateſt Part of Egmont's Dragoons cut to Pieces, and 14 Officers of that Regiment taken. Yeſterday Morning there was a ſmart Engagement on our Left, in which our Irregulars and Free Companies killed and took Priſoners ſeveral of the Enemy, with the Loſs only of two Men on our Side. Lord Garrnick, who is Aid de Camp to Lord Craufurd, was Yeſterday miſtaken for a Frenchman by our Huſſars, who fired at him. In endeavouring to eſcape from them he fell into the Hands of the Enemy, and was carried before Marſhal Saxe, who immediately releaſed him.

Hague, Aug. 19, N. S. Letters of the 16th from the Camp of the Allied Army near Namur inform us, that Marſhal Saxe, after having ſent off a large Detachment on the 13th Inſtant, had the next Day broken up his Camp and marched to the Left, whereupon our Army made a Motion to the Right towards the Mehaigne, by the Way which leads by Tourine les Beguines to St. Tron and Tongres. A Courier from the King of Sardinia to his Miniſter here, who left that Prince's Head Quarters on the 9th Inſtant, N. S. brings Advice, that his Sardinian Majeſty had paſſed the Lambro at the Head of his own Troops, and Count Brown's Detachment, and diſlodged the Enemy from all their Poſts upon that River, as low as Hoſpidaletto, and that M. de Gages had likewiſe abandon'd Lodi and Codogno, and was drawing his whole Force together on the Po, over againſt Placentia, and throwing up Intrenchments to guard his Bridges of Communication with that Place, into which it was thought that he would ſoon be oblig'd to retire. The Report of the Infant's having left the Army is not confirmed.

Hague, Aug 22, N. S. By our Advices from the Allied Army of the 18th Inſtant, it was then poſted along the Southern Side of the Mehaigne; and had paſſed all the preceeding Day under Arms, expecting an Attack from the French, who had appeared drawn up in Order of Battle on the oppoſite Side of that River. Marſhal Saxe did not puſh his March, at the fartheſt, beyond St. Tron, before he fac'd about, and drew up to the North Side of the Mehaigne. Brigadier General Houghton, with the Regiments of Wolf, Pulteney and Sempil, paſs'd by Helvoetſluys laſt Saturday on their Way from Leith to Willemſtadt, where they arrived the ſame Night.

Hague, Aug. 23, N. S. By Letters from the Army of the 20th Inſtant, Marſhal Saxe had advanced his Left, as Prince Charles had his Right, lower down the Mehaigne, the former having his Head Quarters at Hennuye, and the latter his at Bourdenes. The Report of Marſhal Saxe's being declared Generaliſſimo, is now as confidently contradicted, as it was lately affirmed; and it is repreſented only as an Expedient which the French King had once entertained Thoughts of, for putting an End to the Conteſt between that General and the Prince of Conti; but which has fallen to the Ground by the latter's withdrawing himſelf from the Army. Letters of the 15th from Italy mention, that the King of Sardinia was then repaſſing the Po, and General Botta had advanced to Caſtel St. Giovanni. The poor Remains of the French and

Spaniards

Spaniards were ſaid to have fled beyond Tortona, abandoning their Baggage and Artillery in their precipitate Retreat.

Whitehall, Auguſt 15, 1746.

Yeſterday in the Evening arrived a Meſſenger diſpatch'd by Mr. Villettes, his Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of the King of Sardinia, with Letters to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, containing the following Accounts of the total Defeat of the French and Spaniſh Forces on the 10*th Inſtant,* N. S. upon the River Tidone, and of the Surrender of Placentia.

From the King of Sardinia's Camp of Borgoletto, the 11*th of Auguſt, N. S.*

THE Motions of the King of Sardinia, with a conſiderable Body of the Army on the other Side of the Po, having obliged the Enemy to abandon ſucceſſively their Poſts of Marignano, Lody, Chigholo, St. Columbano, and others which they had between the Lambro and the Adda, and to draw nearer to their Intrenchments at Placentia and upon the Po, determined them at laſt to take a deſperate Reſolution, which was that of paſſing the Po, in order to attempt a Retreat towards Tortona. For that Purpoſe they drew down their Boats which they had upon the Lambro, and brought up the Po thoſe which they had at Placentia, and with them laid two Bridges over the Po, between the Mouth of the Lambro, and that of the Tidone, near the Caſſines called la Corta di St. Andrea. They were finiſhed the 9th in the Evening, and their ſeveral Bodies, which had been poſted at different Places, being drawn together at the ſaid Bridges, the Army began to paſs over them that ſame Evening, and all the Night between the 9th and 10th.

General Botta having Notice, from the Parties which patrolled along the Po, of the laying of the ſaid Bridges, and that the Enemy had began to paſs over them, detached on the 9th, about Six of the Clock in the Evening, General Count Serbelloni, with a Body of between 6 and 7000 Men, who marched with all poſſible Expedition. The ſaid General met on the Road Major General Count Gorani, who not having been able to make Head againſt the Enemies that had already paſſed, was returning with his Detachment, and another of 300 of our Horſe and Dragoons, commanded by the Chevalier Orechia, Major of the Dragoons of Piedmont. They joined General Serbelloni, and returned to the Enemy's Bridges, where being ranged in Order of Battle, they began to engage, and maintained their Ground with that ſmall Body till Ten the next Morning, when General Botta, who had marched at Midnight with all the regular Troops, arrived upon the Tidone. Then the Battle was renewed with much more Fury, and laſted till Four in the Afternoon. The Enemy retiring in great Diſorder, and breaking in one upon another, the Slaughter was very great, and eſpecially of the French.
